THE OUTCAST BAND

The Outcast Band are a high-energy roots-rock band originally from the Hampshire/Surrey borders. They have played over 500 shows to date with audiences from London to Berlin at festivals including Glastonbury, Guilfest, Wychwood, Trowbridge, Acoustic Festival of Britain and Heineken Big Tops. The band has distinctive vocals, raw folk instrumentals and fresh, poetic lyrics. Every gig is an unforgettable experience. Website

BILLY LIBERATOR & THE ORBITEERS

The Orbiteers high-energy, guitar-driven anthems and occasional flirtations with pop, country and the blues have won them a devoted following across Surrey and Hampshire in recent years. Website

STONE DOG

Local lads, who write and memorable rock-pop songs that bring together influences from the Beatles to Royal Blood. Website

Woking Community Furniture is a local registered charity which was set up in 1988 and is based in Woking, Surrey. All our work is done with help from volunteers and dedicated staff. We also work closely with local council agencies, churches and charities who identify those most needing our help. WCFP also provides valuable work skills and offers experience and support to the long-term unemployed and disadvantaged in the community via our various work experience opportunities. Website
